Weekly Update from First – April 7/22

This week, we begin our conversations around the place of small groups in the church community. We think about our own group over the next month and its direction and its "why". It will be a good and imaginative conversation to have and easy for people to join in on who may have not been part of this coffee group over the past two years.

Bring your cup of coffee and curiosity as always!

To begin I offer up this video as a place to organize our topic around. Speed past the introduction and put it on 1.5 speed. The video should last 20 minutes or so.
