This week's video is almost 1 1/2 hours long but it is a must watch for everyone in the house! It is funny and a good tear jerker at times.

It is the documentary of Irish folks who are 100 plus years. Some of them think they are not on God's register!

Sit back and enjoy this warm, loving and good humoured documentary over the Christmas Break! You and yours will not be disappointed.

What was your favorite part? Let's share coffee on January 4, 2021....when we are all living into another year!

Clark Kewley

Heather Yacula

Bring all your Christmas Cards to our Virtual Worship Service on January 3, 2021!

We will have an opportunity in the service to spend some time with the community that corresponds with us through the holidays. We will honour and savour their presence in our lives during a time of music and quiet!

Blessings,
Rev. Daryl
