This week's video is on the subject of Quantum Physics! Everyone knows what that means! Snooze time maybe? Actually, it is a video that helps us explain difficult topics that we are trying to understand and communicate. This video offers four steps at explaining difficult things.

I am hoping over the next couple of weeks to gather some thoughts about what Ministry is in the church and how we might describe it to someone who might confuse ministry with the Minister!

Join us for some personal musing on Quantum Physics and Ministry!
