Weekly Update from First – May 13/21

“Coffee & Conversation” Time
Monday Mornings at 10:30am

Call out to Star Gazers, Birder Watchers and Backyard Bird Feeder warriors.

This Monday morning join us in some conversations around three videos. We begin with a little excerpt from Kate Humble's "Off the Beaten Path" TVO series on star gazing in Wales. Learn about protected dark skies and learn how to identify the North Pole. It is grand...

from time mark 19:40-14:55 (the video seems to count down)

Then on for some TVO Birding documentary with a hint of henpecking and humour on watching the bird watchers.

A twenty minute fun video that describes birder types!

And finally for those serious about backyard birding how to deal with your squirrels. Step One: Give them names. Find out what the other steps are...

And for the grand finale - a Katy Perry song for a squirrel. Any great Auntie or Uncle is going to want to impart this one to those children that look to them for wisdom and perspective on things.

Join us for coffee and for something entirely different!
