

Weekly Update from First – September 23/21

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT

WORSHIP

Here's what you should know about Sunday Mornings going forward!

You are welcome to attend in-person at First Church – still 10:30am!

Please enter through the Accessibility door in the parking lot.

Our Music Ministry (by Jody ☺), the Opening & Announcements and the Prayers (as well as other aspects) are the responsibility of each Church.

The Family Worship Time & the Message are shared between Central & First.

Church School is not shared, but we share the curriculum. The Congregations and Church Schools will follow the same themes.

We are experimenting with the format and the technology. The service will be tweaked as we learn and grow. This is in preparation for sharing Ministry staff with Central UC.

We are so excited to share all of this with you!! See you Sunday!

Coffee & Curious Spirituality

'Coffee & Curious Spirituality' Monday, September 27th @ 10:30am

This week our country wears orange shirts to honour Residential School survivors. In this week's video we'll listen to Justice Sinclair share about residential school survivors and how we start working toward reconciliation. Justice Sinclair chaired the TRC and brings deeper reflection on Orange Shirt Day. What does reconciliation mean?

If you feel like you are traversing a wilderness and want to share with others how to find courage and belonging in this scary time, please join Susanna Suchak in the Fall (well after Labour Day) in an online book study of Brené Brown’s book, BRAVING THE WILDERNESS.

You could form your own group and gather together to participate in the discussions with others who are also venturing into new territory as we reopen our churches. Sneak peek here:

There will be activities (mere suggestions) as well as discussions, so put on your best pilgrim gear and take a chance...

Curious, but still wondering exactly what this might look like, email susanna suchak – susanna.suchak@gmail.com to ask your questions.
