ORANGE SHIRT SUNDAY

On Sunday, September 28th wear an orange shirt to Church to remember and honour Indigenous children who were taken from their homes.

On Orange Shirt Day (actually September 30th but we honour the day at church the Sunday prior) we also observe the National Day for Truth and Reconciliation. For non-Indigenous Christians in particular, this is a time to reflect on their role in colonialism and the ongoing responsibility to make reparations.

Why Orange? Phyllis Jack Webstad from the Stswecem'c Xgat'tem First Nation went to St. Joseph Mission Residential School. On her first day of school, Phyllis wore an orange shirt that her grandmother had given her. It was immediately taken away, and that marked the beginning of Phyllis's long separation from her family and community, a separation caused by actions of the church and federal government.

Orange Shirt Day is a time for us all to remember those events and their ongoing impact.

LET'S COME TOGETHER TO ACKNOWLEDGE, EDUCATE, AND HEAL.
